

Abates, qui non in fructum animarum, sed in aurium et turpe lucrum inhiantes, quoslibet homines circumveniendototidem, et res eorum tunc persuasione subripuerunt, penitentiae canonice utique turpi licet sectatores subiacent. Hi vero, qui illiciti comam depulerunt, in eo, quod ceperunt, perseverare coguntur, res vero eorum hereticis redduntur.

QUESTIO IV. GRATIANUS.

I. Pars. Quod vero ab alio monasterio in alio districtu transire monachi libere sibi, ex Concilio Triburicensi habetur, in quo de statuto est?

C. I. Non nisi prohibentibus virginis sacree, que causa religioni aliud monasterium adire desiderant. Virgines sacree si pro lucro animae suas propter districtorem vitam ad aliud monasterium pergere dispo-uerent, huiusmodi committere decreverunt, si non con-cedat. Si vero fuga disciplina aliis non quaesierint, redire coguntur.

Gratian. Quod autem de virginibus sacris hoc capitulum statuit de monacha etiam consequenter intelligitur, de qua ille-tilium est dicitur.

II. Pars. §. I. Sic obicitur illud Basilianum?

C. II. Vota monachi sine consensu abbatis sui irrita sunt. Monachus non licet sine votum suum sine consensu abbatis sui, si autem suorum, frangendum erit.

Item illud Agathensis Concilii, [c. 27.].

C. III. Monachum nullus precipiat aut ordinat abque abbate sui permisso.

Monachus, nisi ab abbate sui permisso, non potest ad alterum monasterium commigrare, nullus abbas susci- pere aut retinere presumat, sed ubiqueque fuerit, abbati suo auctoritate canonice reuocetur. §. I. Item. Clericus sine commendatitiae episcopi, si episcopi sui licentia non sit, forma seruetur, quos si uerborum interpretatio non seruandam quousque de monachis, ne eis ad solitaria colport-entibus labores, aut propter infirmitatem necessitatem fieri, ut infra eadem monasterio septa manentes, tamen sub abbatis potestate, separatis diuersis cellulis permittantur monasteria habere non licet, nisi tantum propter in- cursum hostilitatis intra muros receptacula collocent.
